

LYCEUM SCHOLARS PROGRAM

THE CLEMSON INSTITUTE FOR THE STUDY OF CAPITALISM

America's first and only four year university-based academic program dedicated to exploring the moral, political, and economic foundations of a free society.

$10,000 Scholarships

to Clemson University

Open to incoming freshmen, the curriculum develops students' faculties of inquiry and ignites their passion for knowledge. It presents students with ideas that are fundamental, timeless, and life-changing.

The Program uses a Great Books approach to studying liberty, free markets, the American Founding and moral character. All Lyceum Scholars will be given a faculty "Socratic tutor" who will closely monitor and guide their intellectual development for their entire four-year education.

Those interested in becoming Lyceum Scholars should apply in their senior year of high school to Clemson University and to the Lyceum Scholars Program.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

This is an eight course sequence with one Lyceum course each semester. Scholars take all of their program courses together as an intellectual cohort.

INTELLECTUAL OUTCOMES

Students will graduate with a robust training in the intellectual skills of being rational, independent, serious, and honest thinkers, articulate speakers, and eloquent writers.

Additionally, students will be thoroughly familiar with the essential ideas that form the foundation of free institutions thus preparing them to move into careers in law, academia, policy making, and the business world.
