Class Discussion and Homework: This course is not lecture based, so the success of this course depends keenly on your involvement. For each assigned reading, you are to bring to class typed answers to the discussion questions and these will form the basis of our class discussions that day. Each student will have a turn leading the Atlas Shrugged discussion.

Essay: Students will choose one of four topics from Atlas Shrugged. Students may choose one of the three topics from the Ayn Rand Institute’s essay contest (http://www.aynrand.org) or students may present a summary of the comparison of capitalism and collectivism as presented in Atlas Shrugged. Any material you obtain from outside sources should be referenced using the APA style, and your paper must have a list of references at the end. Any material quoted directly from your references should be enclosed in quotation marks and referenced. Your paper should be your own work, and you should adhere to the standards of the CNU honor code (see below). The essay should be typed, double-spaced, and the text of the paper should be 1000-1200 words in length (excluding references). Late papers will be assigned a grade penalty.

CLASS POLICY: No electronic devices may be used in class other than a tape recorder for taping lectures. Please turn off all cell phones, pagers, MP3 players, etc.

Students are expected to be on time and to attend all classes. Students who miss class are responsible for obtaining missed handouts or other information/announcements.

Students are expected to turn in assignments on time. All homework due dates will be announced in class on a flow basis and late work will not be accepted. Essays submitted after the deadline will be assigned a grade penalty.

Students are expected to keep up with the assigned readings, to complete assignments, and to attend office hours for additional assistance.

We want you to succeed at CNU; therefore I may notify the Academic Advising Center if you seem to be having problems with this course. Someone may contact you to help you determine what help you need to succeed. You will be sent a copy of the referral form. I invite you to see me if I can be of any assistance in helping you with the course material.

In other words, your success in this class depends on you, but I am willing to help you achieve this goal!

CNU HONOR CODE: “On my honor, I will maintain the highest possible standards of honesty, integrity and personal responsibility. That means I will not lie, cheat, or steal and as a member of this academic community, I am committed to creating an environment of respect and mutual trust.”

NOTE: Any student who believes that he or she is disabled should contact me to discuss your needs. In order to receive an accommodation, your disability must be on record in Disability Services.
