Lyceum Fellows Program
The Clemson Institute for the Study of Capitalism

Read the Great Books of Western Civilization

The Lyceum Fellows program takes a Great Books approach to studying the moral, political and economic foundations of a free society. Students in the program learn ideas that are fundamental, timeless, and life-changing.

Academic Program

Lyceum Fellows are required to complete the following six classes by the time they graduate. Students can take the courses in any order and at any time during their undergraduate career.

The program is open to students of any major, but students who complete this course of study fulfill the requirements for a minor in Political Science (“Political and Legal Theory”).

POSC 1030: Introduction to Political Theory*
POSC 4550: Political Thought of the American Founding
POSC 4530: American Political Thought
POSC 4370: Constitutional Law I - Rights and Liberties
POSC 4380: Constitutional Law II - Structures of Government
POSC 4490: Political Theory of Capitalism
